

Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota

Office of the Governor

Whereas, South Dakota was established by people with hard work, perseverance, and dedication to duty to provide for their families and their fellow man; and,

Whereas, On March 31, 1980, William "Bill" Zellmer started working for the state of South Dakota as a well inspector with the Department of Environment and Natural Resources and later transferred to the Bureau of Administration to operate a printing press for Central Duplicating; and,

Whereas, Bill has consistently demonstrated a willingness to work as a team player in the printing of forms, letterheads, brochures, and many other publications for various state agencies; and,

Whereas, Bill's loyalty, dedication, and friendship will not be forgotten by those who have worked with him over the years; and,

Whereas, On April 30, 2010, after 30 years of service to the state of South Dakota, Bill will retire; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to recognize the many accomplishments, devotion, and years of service of this special South Dakotan;

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim April 30, 2010, as in South Dakota, and I join his family, friends, and colleagues in wishing him good health and happiness in his well deserved retirement.

WILLIAM ZELLMER DAY

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-third Day of April in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Ten.

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "M. Michael Rounds".

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "Chris Nelson".

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State